About Us

At Tai Poutini Polytechnic we're serious about education. Our tutors are all experts in their field, have excellent industry connections and are passionate about teaching.

We are part of Te Pūkenga, the national vocational tertiary education provider, with campuses on the West Coast and other NZ locations. This means we have access to more resources, can provide more options and flexibility for learners and we have plenty of opportunities for innovation.

Once fully established, Te Pūkenga will provide a flexible combination of campus-based, online and work-based learning to meet the needs of learners and employers. We are playing a big part in the sector reforms, testing new ideas, being proactive with initiatives and focusing on getting great outcomes for our learners.

Applying to enrol as a student at Tai Poutini Polytechnic is simple. If you require more information or wish to speak directly with a tutor please email us at: study@tpp.ac.nz or call 0800 TPP INFO.

A West Coast first, students with learning disabilities can now seek tertiary training to prepare them for jobs in the hospitality industry.

Tai Poutini Polytechnic has worked closely with parents, whānau, educators and support services to develop the Training Scheme in Hospitality Supported Learning (Level 1), targeted especially at students who required supported learning. This is the first time a jobs-focused tertiary programme for supported learning students has been made available on the West Coast.

Students will learn the basics of customer service, presentation and health and safety in a hospitality environment. They will benefit from learning life skills and communication skills to help build confidence and understanding of basic hospitality and community practices. The programme aims to prepare students for an entry-level position in the hospitality industry; it also offers social and life skills and the ability to interact with the local community.

Benefits

The benefits of this training scheme include:

- Supporting the development of hospitality industry skills and knowledge
- Building learners study skills and supporting progression of learners to further tertiary education
- Building learners life skills
- Supporting the learning of people who have high learning needs
- Working alongside local schools or community organisations to provide support and study options for supported learners
- Developing learner confidence and awareness to be better able to operate independently in a range of community situations
- Develop potential entry level staff members for the wider West Coast hospitality and customer service industries
- Building learner connections
- Increase learners understanding of and sense of and place in the wider community

Learning Outcomes

Graduates of this training scheme will be able to:

- Participate in a dining experience in a hospitality context.

The Tai Poutini “Edge”

Tai Poutini is nestled between the wild Tasman Sea and the grand Southern Alps. People who live on the West Coast know what it takes to live on the edge. Confidence, skills and a “can do, will do” attitude set them apart.

Tai Poutini Polytechnic graduates are out there on the edge doing it!

He aha te mea nui o te ao?

He tangata, he tangata, he tangata!

What is the most important thing in the world?

It is people, it is people, it is people!
